MEETING TIME: Tuesday, Thursday 12-1:20pm, Spring 2011

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course provides an historical and analytical review of interior architecture from the Progressive Era through the end of the 20th century. We will investigate the major stylistic movements of this time period, such as Art Nouveau, Art Deco, Modernism and Post Modernism, and explore interior environments in their social, political, and cultural contexts. These contexts include, among others, the Great Migration, the World Wars, urbanization, the New Deal, and The Women’s Rights Movement.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS: Assignments will involve a combination of short assignments and class examinations.

TEXTBOOK REQUIRED: Readings will come from a variety of texts, journals and primary sources.

NOTE: This course is cross listed with IARCH and is open to students in AAA and beyond. It is required for Interior Architecture majors and is the third in the 3-course sequence.
