The Urban Strategies course will present historic and contemporary examples of successful urban designs and discuss selected readings related to the projects. The course will draw on Portland’s strong record in promoting and developing urban projects that engage the issues of our time. Each student will choose a case study to research and develop during the term and present their study to the class at the end of the term.